

Trauma Therapist Job Description

MISSION STATEMENT

Dawn's Place is a nonprofit organization that proactively supports women affected by commercial sexual exploitation (CSE) and its abuse by providing services to women and raising awareness through education, prevention, public policy reform and community collaborations. Because we believe that CSE is a violation of human rights

- x coordinates individual trauma therapy to women who have a history of commercial exploitation, prostitution/sex work and/or physical and sexual abuse as well as co-occurring disorders;
- x meets monthly or more often, as necessary, with Executive Director to discuss client progress as well as potential clinical issues;
- x has a thorough understanding of confidentiality as it pertains to this population;
- x facilitates weekly therapy process group for residents as well as aftercare for graduates of program;
- x interacts with psychiatric and other behavioral health consultants as needed
- x responds to crises and/or emergencies
- x coordinates, conducts or participates in training as requested;
- x works at-1.6 (Te78c 0 4