

Philadelphia Area Number Theory Seminar

Heidi Goodson
Haverford College

A Tale of Two Hypergeometric Properties of Algebraic Varieties

Abstract: In this talk, we investigate the relationship between special functions and arithmetic and analytic properties of algebraic varieties. More specifically, we use Greene's finite field hypergeometric functions to give point count formulas for various families of varieties. And <https://arxiv.org/abs/1608.08441>